

Tuesday's in the Park Returns to Fennville June 14, 2016

The 14th Annual Tuesday's in the Park Summer Concert Series provided by City of Fennville DDA welcomes, Vox Vidorra! The summer concerts offer family fun entertainment, picnic style, so remember to bring your chairs or blankets. The concerts are held at Memorial/Paradise Park on North Maple Street in downtown Fennville with music beginning at 7PM. In case of inclement weather the concerts will take place in the lower level of the Fennville District Library.

The first band to kick off this years series will be: Vox Vidorra, an indie/soul quartet from Grand Rapids, MI. Lead by vocal phenom Molly Bouwsma Schultz, the band combines rich, Motown worthy vocals with an underbelly of indie rock, soul, and jazz provided by multi-instrumentalists Scott Schultz, Ryan K Wilson, and Theo Ndawillie II.

The songs are reminiscent of days-gone-by but are rooted in now, exploring inequality, race, and religion, all with a melodic sheen that allows access to the depth of the recordings.

Established in early 2014, Vox Vidorra hasn't been around long but is making waves in Michigan. Goon Lagoon Studio's Tommy Schichtel (who co-produced/engineered the debut album "Promise Land") asserts the band has the potential to be "one of the biggest things to come out of Grand Rapids in many years."
